We Texans seldom think in terms of smallness. We aren't brought up that way.

Certainly no Texan could conceive of a small Texas when thinking "what a small world this is after all."

Yet there is at least one Milam Countian ready to admit it's a small world even if he lives in a Texas county.

Burlington's Edwin Fiesel relates this world-shrinking coincidence that happened one night last week.

It seems that Ed was driving home from work at Rosebud when he stopped to pick up a hitch hiker.

In the course of the conversation that will develop between strangers, Ed remarked to his passenger that he looked familiar.

"Ever serve in the Army?" Ed asked.

"Yeah, I served in Germany during World War II."

"So did I," said Ed.

That was all that was necessary. The two men then realized they had served in the same Medical Corps battalion during the second war at Wiesbaden, Germany.

Fiesel's wartime buddy turned out to be Albert Reynolds, now of Casper, Wyoming. Reynolds was on his way to Victoria.

Well Reynolds stopped over that night to renew old acquaintances rather than go on to Victoria. And the two veterans, disconnected by almost 14 years of time, talked about experiences in the 317th Station Hospital in Germany.

It doesn't take satellites to prove that time and space are shrinking in these United States.

99-99-99

Postman Mollie Burke has a secret, but he shared it with NINTY-NINER this week.

He's raising oranges.

It's quite by accident, he assured us, and he has only three full-grown citrus to show for it.

He says that some seeds he picked up on a trip to Florida a few years ago actually blossomed into an orange tree in his yard. And lo, this year out popped the fruit.

"I'm expecting a frost to stop all this nonsense," Burke smiled. "Everybody knows oranges can't grow this far north."

Boy Scouts Set 2500 Goal For New Members

A goal of 2500 new Boys Scouts Cubs, and Explorers by December 15 has been set for the 1958 Scout Roundup according to Burt Kennedy, area scout executive.

"Boys who are 8, 9, and 10 are eligible for the Cub Packs; boys 11, 12 and 13 may join the Explorer Post," Kennedy said. He added "There are about 21,000 boys of scouting age in the Heart of Texas Council who are not in the Scouts."

Local Cubmasters are E. O. Schiller Jr., Stewart Perkins and Charlie Viewing. Scoutmasters are Felix Matula, Richard Moseley and Oliver Blaylock. Kennedy invited boys interested in the Explorer Post to call 676.

Rockdale Pastor Addresses Clubs

The Rev. Robert Graves, pastor of St. John's Methodist Church, Rockdale, addressed the combined men's civic clubs of Cameron Tuesday noon at a Thanksgiving dinner.

Introduced by the Rev. Walter Grimes, Rev. Graves spoke on "Gratitude" at Thanksgiving.

Members of the Lions, Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs attended the annual Thanksgiving dinner at the First Christian Church. Women of the church served a turkey dinner.

Robert Nelson, president of the Co-host Kiwanis, introduced club presidents and guests.

PROJECTED DIAL CENTER — This architect's sketch shows the 54 by 53 one-story Cameron dial building to be started Monday at W. First St. and N. Travis Ave. by contractors following a ground-breaking ceremony. It will house Cameron's new dial system which Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. officials say will cost $323,000 to construct.

Ground-Breaking Monday

SW Bell To Build Dial Center

A ground-breaking ceremony 10 a.m. Monday will signal opening construction on a $323,000 dial system and building to be erected by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. City officials have been invited to attend the Monday ceremony by telephone company officials, according to Manager C. L. Carson.

Construction of the building will bring Cameron telephone customers closer to dial service, Carson said.

Low bid on the building was submitted by the Coffield Construction Co., Rockdale. Eight bids were opened and let last week in Austin.

Construction was to begin immediately with a completion date scheduled next spring.

$323,000 Dial Service

The telephone company will spend about $323,000 to provide Cameron customers with dial service, Carson noted. He said that installation of dial equipment and the change over to dial service would follow immediately the construction of the dial center.

"We are pleased to announce that construction will begin on the building to house modern dial equipment which will mean faster and more pleasing service to our customers in Cameron," Carson said.

The new building will provide space for complex dial switching equipment which will speed calls about town, a business office and commercial quarters, mechanical equipment room, office space for the company's wire chief here, restrooms and lounge facilities, and storage space.

At First & Travis

The building is to be located at the northeast corner of West First Street and North Travis Avenue. It will be a one-story structure, 54 feet by 53 feet, and will be solid masonry construction with face brick exterior and stone trim.

"For the convenience of our Cameron customers and to eliminate parking problems, the building plans also call for a customer parking lot," Carson said. There will be a drive off West First Street to a paved parking area for customers, which will measure 35 feet by 75 feet.

Company vehicles will be parked in a paved area at the rear of the building, which will have a drive off Travis Avenue.

When the building is nearing completion, a special crew of installers from Western Electric Company, manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System, will come to Cameron to put the new dial equipment in place.

State Sets $169,000 For County Roads

The Texas Highway Department will spend $169,500 for farm-to-market and ranch-to-market road betterment in Milam County during 1959, D. C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, has announced.

At the November meeting of the Texas Highway Commission $20,000,000 was appropriated for improvements on 3,601.8 miles of existing farm-to-market roads in 187 counties.

Not only surface and base strengthening but also bridge widening and replacement and shoulder improvement is included in the work roads are scheduled to receive, Greer stated.

This is in addition to the regular construction and maintenance program already programed for the counties concerned, the State Highway Engineer stated.

According to C. B. Thames,

District Engineer of the Bryan District No. 17, the following projects in Milam County have been listed for improvement:

FM 485 between U. S. 190 at Buckholts & U. S. 77 at Splawn (Sections), a distance of approximately 6.5 miles;
FM 1444 from U. S. 77 at Ben Arnold, East, a distance of approximately 4.4 miles;

FM 1445 from Clarkson, South a distance of approximately 3.7 miles;

FM 487, 4.4 miles west of U. S. 77 North of Rockdale, replace culverts in San Gabriel River Bottom.

These projects will either be constructed by contract or State maintenance forces as conditions permit and it is planned that these betterment projects will be placed under construction during the spring and summer of 1959.

Christmas Mail Rush On

PO Awaits Annual Rush

Postmaster John R. Hays, Cameron, is pleased with the prompt response to his recently announced "Mail Early For Christmas" Campaign.

He said today that the biggest factor in getting all mail delivered before Christmas is the full corporation of the public in early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts. Post Office facilities have been expanded, extra personnel will be available, and everything is geared to handle a record Christmas mail in Cameron this year.

Three Package Rules

With Christmas only a month away, the Postmaster says it's not a bit too soon to start following three simple rules to insure delivery of your gifts before Christmas: Wrap them securely, Address them correctly, and MAIL THEM EARLY.

The Postmaster said you shouldn't take chances on mailing poorly wrapped packages. Use corrugated mailing cartons, plenty of heavy brown wrapping paper, and be sure that every package is tied with strong cord.

Cartons containing several gift packages should be stuffed with tissue or old newspapers to cushion the contents.

The Postmaster also reminds us that size and weight limitations for Parcel Post packages vary according to place of mailing and destination. He suggests that you secure Pamphlet No. 2 at the Post Office, which tells all about packaging and wrapping parcels. And always include an extra label with your return address and the recipients address inside the cartons or package before it is wrapped, he advises.

"Careful addressing of your Christmas cards is equally important," the Postmaster said. Bring your Christmas card mailing list up-to-date and be certain that you have the complete name, address, zone number, city and state for everyone on your list.

Always send your Christmas cards by First Class mail. They will be processed and delivered quicker and they'll be forwarded or returned, if it becomes necessary. Christmas cards sent by First Class mail may carry written messages; whereas, cards sent with Third class three cent postage may only have a written signature.

Don't fail to put your return address on your Christmas card envelopes. This is not only socially correct, but it will enable both you and your friends to keep your mailing lists up-to-date.

Jaycees Start Christmas City Yule Projects

Cameron Jaycees outlined final plans for their part in the "Christmas City" theme developing in community efforts for the Yule season in Cameron.

Jaycee workers will fell a 25-foot cedar tree this weekend and erect and decorate the Christmas tree on the courthouse square in downtown Cameron.

While Jaycees erect the tree, other workers will check out light streamers for four downtown intersections for installation early next week.

Work plans went into operation to start repair of toys collected through the fourth annual Santa Pals.

Big, red Santa Pal barrels will be set out opposite the Cameron Post Office in front of White's Auto Store for collection of used toys, according to President Bill Crockett.

Jaycee workers will start the repairing program in nightly sessions in a barn at the F. E. Jackson residence, Cameron.

Crockett appealed for toys and money contributions for the annual event which last year reached 200 underprivileged youngsters with toys. Jaycees hope to double that number this Christmas.

The toys will be distributed after repair by other Jaycees.

In other Christmas planning, the Jaycees drew up plans for installing high fidelity record equipment atop the courthouse for playing of Christmas music throughout the holidays.

Workers will erect a small tower of speakers to carry the sound across the business district and to residential sections throughout the city.

The tree and music will be instituted in time for the Chamber of Commerce's Santa Parade December 5.

The two groups are turning efforts to make Cameron Central Texas' Christmas City.

Auditor Commends School Record Books

An audit of the records of the Cameron School District has resulted in a commendation of school officials and office personnel.

Following an audit of the district books, Charles R. Vance, certified public accountant, concluded that administration records of the $578,313.92 budget "have been kept in a most excellent fashion."

His audit showed that 2.4 percent of the district's valuation in delinquent taxes was out and said the school tax collector could collect most of the back taxes totaling $11,820 if given legal authority to push collections.

He noted that cafeteria operations in the O. J. Thomas school had improved while a deficit was shown in the white cafeterias due to increased lunchroom costs.

Worshippers Hear Rev. Russell At Citywide Service

Thanksgiving was a day of quietude in Cameron and Milam County as the gobble and cranberry sauce took first place in the minds of countians.

Worshippers gathered Wednesday night at the First Christian Church to cite Thanksgiving in annual services sponsored by the Cameron Ministerial Association.

The Rev. Aubrey F. Russell, pastor of the First Baptist Church delivered the Thanksgiving message. Others on the program were the Revs. B. L. Laughlin, Floyd Hawkins, E. J. Davis, Gerald R. Cobb and the Rev. Burleson.

Choral music was furnished by the First Christian Church choir. Elsewhere in the city visitors gathered around the Thanksgiving table for the annual feast of turkey and trimmings.

Practically all businesses were closed for the day.

Westbrooks, Taylors Married 58 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Westbrook both of Milano will celebrate their 58th wedding anniversary Friday, November 28.

The couples, Mike Taylor and Irene Westbrook, and Claude Westbrook and Annie Taylor, were united in a double wedding at the Taylor home in 1900.

The most unusual part of this story: it was Mike Taylor's sister that Claude Westbrook married. And it was Claude Westbrook's sister that Mike Taylor married.

It was in 1899 that Taylor and Westbrook carried on the serious courtship of one another's sisters. During that year all four of them use to go to country dances together, on horseback, for even buggies were scarce then.

They say that a double wedding hadn't been planned, but both couples decided privately on the same wedding date.

The Taylor and Westbrooks are one of the few couples married in a double wedding who were able to celebrate their golden anniversary together. The observance will be long remembered in Milano as friends and family gathered from over the state to wish them well.

Both Taylor and Westbrook are retired farmers. Taylor is 80, his wife 79. Westbrook is 78 and Mrs. Westbrook is 77.

Both couples had seven children, but the Westbrooks are ahead with 18 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. The Taylors have 12 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A Purpose From Ideas...

They were going over the maps carefully, tracing streetways, asking questions, sounding opinions, discussing.

This was a group in action. This was the City Planning Commission analyzing the prospects for Cameron's future streets. This was a group thinking.

Tuesday night, after only three such sessions in about two weeks, this nine-man group forwarded a recommended list of improvements with your future in mind.

Their purpose? It is to turn over to the City Council a planned outline of recommendations that will turn the city's surplus improvement funds into better streetways for Cameron.

The outline lists in order of considered importance and need the streets and thoroughfares that need improvement or replacement.

The Commission and the City Council know that this program is not an immediate panacea for the street needs of Cameron. But it is a realistic start toward development of a far-reaching program affecting each one of us.

Its real effect will depend upon our acceptance of it. For it would put public funds to work with personal funds to bring safer streets and better drainage to Cameron.

It would be the basis for years of constant improvement that would inevitably bring Cameron streets to the par Cameron citizens desire.

Cameron has said through a civic improvement clinic that she wants street improvement. Seventy-seven percent of a valid cross-section of city residents agreed that streets were Number One on any community development project.

Here, then, is a realistic consideration of the problem! Here is a purpose on which Cameron can work together and solve. Here is where development comes from... ideas!

Legislator Pay Raise Buried But Not Dead

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex.—Higher pay for Legislators is an issue that's buried but not dead.

Voters buried it under a two-to-one avalanche of disapproval when it was submitted as a constitutional amendment Nov. 4. But already there is talk of trying again.

It is being discussed both by those who supported "Amendment One" and those who fought hardest against it. Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, leading spokesman for the opposition, has indicated he may submit a pay raise plan of his own next session. Hardeman attacked the recent proposal, not on the principle of better pay for lawmakers, but on the grounds that the amendment was a muddled conglomeration of too many things.

State AFL-CIO, which worked for Amendment One, is plugging for re-submission of the annual pay question. AFL-CIO headquarters officials sent a letter to legislators expressing regret that the amendment did not pass and placing the blame on labor's favorite targets — business lobbyists and newspapers.

Whatever the merits of the case, a lot of people in the state agencies in Austin are glad about the prospect of facing a disgruntled, pinch-penny Legislature next year. With the general revenue fund in the red, there's bound to be an effort to cut expenses. In addition, state employees fear, there'll be a feeling among lawmakers that if we can work for peanuts, so can you.

WATER STRUGGLES
State Board of Water Engineers has completed public hearing on one squabble over Trinity River water and is faced with another soon.

Probably as a result of the recent drought, there seems to be an increasing intensity in the struggles between various areas of Texas for water rights.

In the case of a major river like the Trinity, which passes through or near three major cities — Fort Worth, Dallas and Houston — there's always a fear that one city will take out so much water another will run dry.

Water Board has under consideration now Dallas' request for a permit to build Forney Dam on the East Fork of the Trinity. There was strong opposition from the North Texas Municipal Water District, particularly Rockwall County, on the grounds that the dam would secure Dallas' water future at the expense of north county neighbors.

In making is another wrangle over Houston's request to build a reservoir at Livingston, Houston wants to divert 1,100,000 gallons daily to the reservoir — practically all the unappropriated water from the Trinity. Dallas is attempting to organize Upper Trinity towns and cities — including Fort Worth — to oppose the plan.

WELFARE PROGRAM
Texas Social Welfare Association at its meeting in Austin asked the next Legislature to:

1. Pass laws putting into effect the new constitutional amendment permitting medical aid for the aged, disabled and dependent.

2. Overhaul laws dealing with delinquent, dependent and neglected children.

3. Appropriate money to the Texas Youth Council for more staffers, including parole supervisors for juveniles.

4. Pass a minimum standard hospital licensing law.

Association also passed a resolution praising State Welfare Dept. Director John Winters and presented its Distinguished Service Award to Miss Ima Hogg of Houston (daughter of the late Gov. James Hogg) for her generosity on the behalf of mental health work.

MECHANICS LICENSE LAW
Next Legislature will be asked to decide whether to require auto mechanics to have a license before monkeying around under the hood of your car.

Texas Independent Garagemen's Association has voted to work for such a law.

Under the association's proposal, all independent auto repair shops, all authorized car dealers' shops and all mechanics would be examined and licensed under a state board. Purpose, say the garagemen, is to protect the public from those who pad bills and do little, if anything, for cars.

The picture has changed, but the spirit abides...

It is a far cry from the scene of the first Thanksgiving to the festive tables in modern, streamlined homes at which we celebrate the holiday today. But, basic to the proper observance of the Day is the same spirit of devout thankfulness for the blessings vouchsafed to us by a Divine Providence... the same steadfast dedication to maintaining those freedoms for which the founder of our country braved the hazards of the New World.

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Sage Says A Dollar Earned Is Not Necessarily A Dollar Saved

Dear editor:
According to a newspaper I was reading last night, there's going to be a great contest in the next session of Congress over who's going to keep who from spending too much.

The Republicans say the Democrats elected a lot of spenders, and the Democrats say if it hadn't been for them the Republicans would have spent five billion dollars more than they did in the last session.

What puzzles me about this is that in the same newspaper I read a statement by the former president of the National Council of Economic Advisors that "the American consumer could be called the hero of the recent recession. The consumer's sustained and confident spending sparked the upturn."

As I understand this, the public kept on spending money and whipped the recession, if they'd held on to their money we might have had a real depression, and what I want to know is why can't the government be as broad-gauged about this as you and me, although it must have been you, not me, who's the hero, as I didn't do much spending, on account of the non-credit, policies of some stores. In other words they cut me off.

However, from long experience, I'd like to hasten to say that this question is mostly theoretical, actually the government does believe in spending, but not in admitting it, and while I have never seen an administration that campaigned on more spending, on the other hand I've never seen one that stayed in office on that basis. Least-wise, each administration has spent more than the previous one for the past 30 years, and you can't look at the budget and tell which party drew it up.

The way it looks to me, while the country can't spend itself into prosperity, on the other hand it can't economize itself there either, which still leaves the question of how we ever got any prosperity in the first place. In short, I don't know anymore about economics than the experts.

All I know is that while maybe a dollar saved is a dollar earned, still on the other hand a dollar earned these days sure ain't no dollar saved.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

The Burkes-Howard Co., Cameron and Bartlett, offers an outstanding line of farm and home name-brand appliances and machines, including International-Harvester trucks and Farmall row-crop tractors.

Max Howard, general manager and half-owner in the business, points out many other familiar names in appliances, farm equipment and allied materials as well as one of the largest stock of service parts in Central Texas.

"We really service what we sell," Howard says. "Our well-stocked parts department has just about everything to keep equipment sold at Burkes-Howard going. And we have the servicemen to do the work right."

Many Products Burkes-Howard Co. lines include General Electric appliances, Star tires, Choremaster and Eskla lawnmowers, Continental post-hole diggers and sprayers, stalk shredders by Service Equipment Co., Windpower rotary hoes and farm trailers, Ranger home trailers, Whirlpool freezers, lawn furniture, evaporative coolers and baling wire.

"We have a competent staff to stand behind our line of merchandise," Howard continues.

"O. G. Chamberlain has been our parts supervisor for four years. And Leo Plachy, William (Bill) Gibbs and Frank Plasek do an expert repair job on any kind of equipment customers bring in."

Plachy has 16 years experience with Burkes-Howard and is an appliance specialist. Gibbs is a top-notch welder while Plasek is an expert motor mechanic.

"We would like to point out that we sell a number of different types of Continental post hole diggers, including sprayers, stalk shredders and terracing machines, blades and dozers by Service Equipment Co., one of the major suppliers we represent," Howard says.

Burkes-Howard now has two stores, allowing them to buy in larger quantities for discount prices to farm consumers. Howard and his partner E. J. Burkes, opened a farm equipment and appliance store in Bartlett in May, 1957.

Modern Facilities Double Intake For Milam Grain

Milam Grain Co. about doubled its maize intake during the 1958 grain season with increased unloading facilities at 201 Cedar St., Cameron.

Manager C. O. Angell says that Milam Grain Co., now in its second year of operation has increased unloading capacity by 275,000 pounds per hour.

"This means that there will be much quicker unloading when farmers bring in their grain for storage," Angell says.

The increased size is possible through enlargement of unloading facilities used last summer from 75,000 pounds-per-hour capacity to 150,000 pounds per hour, he points out.

"And we have added a new unloading facility that will handle 200,000 pounds of maize an hour by itself," Angell notes.

375,000 Pounds An Hour

Combined unloading facilities of the Milam Grain Co. then will be able to handle 375,000 pounds an hour compared to 75,000 pounds an hour in 1957.

Officers of Milam Grain Co. are Perry Holder, president; Angell, vice-president; Robert M. Clark, secretary-treasurer; and H. L. Yager, member of the board of directors along with the other officers.

Old Batte Mill

The Milam Grain Co. buildings were once the old Batte Oil Mill which was re-opened for grain storage last summer.

COLOR FOR CHRISTMAS

I would like to again remind you of our gift service plan.

To match this colorful season of the year, telephones in color are an ideal gift - particularly for relatives or close friends who have only one telephone in their home.

A handy additional phone in color will be a gift they'll remember all year long: It makes their telephone service more convenient, more useful - and more colorful.

We will give you a small gift box containing a gift card with a miniature telephone attached to put under your Christmas tree. The card will give your name and invite the recipient of your thoughtfulness to call the business office when ready for his gift to be installed.

Please call our business office 244 for more information about colored telephones for yourself and to give as gifts.

HOLIDAY GET-TOGETHER BY PHONE

With Thanksgiving at hand, many people I know are planning a long distant call to family members living out of town.

If all the people in your family won't be with you in person for turkey and all the trimmings, let a telephone call wipe away the miles and still make it a "family day." After all, a long distance "voice visit" is the next best thing to being together. Why not plan now to make your call Thanksgiving Day?

"STRANGE CASE OF THE COSMIC RAYS"

The fascinating story of how scientists tracked down the mysterious cosmic rays will be told in a Bell System science show coming your way on TV on Saturday, November 29.

"The Strange Case of the Cosmic Rays" was first telecast last year. Today, this program should be even more timely with television viewers, since one of America's satellites spinning around the earth carries special sensitive devices to record these cosmic rays.

Starring Dr. Frank Baxter in the roll of the "Scientist" and Richard Carlson as the "Writer", this Bell System science program is another in the series designed for family entertainment.

"The Strange Case of the Cosmic Rays" will be telecast over Channel 7 at 3:15 P.M., November 29th., Saturday.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Favorable Reports On First Field Trials Of African Star Bermuda

The first field trials of African Star Bermudagrass that have been observed in Milam County show signs of out-doing the very popular Coastal Bermuda. Charlie Terry furnished the parent stock for this grass. He has given planting material to people throughout the county to use on a trial basis.

SCS technicians from Cameron are making regular checks on several observational plantings in the area to help evaluate the adaptability of the grass for use in this part of the state. E. A. Perrin has a trial on an Irving fine sandy loam soil near Cameron. A. H. Baskin, Jr., and Lawrence McClaren have plantings on Milam fine sand soils. Observations of these plantings until now have shown favorable results.

All of the plantings were made in the late spring, and were a little slow making cover because of the summer drought. When the rains did come the grass began to grow rapidly. In many cases only one plant covered as much as twenty feet. It grows at least twice as tall as the other Bermudas, but is not as dense. The vegetation is very leafy and is well liked by livestock. In short, it looks good for this year, but more information is needed before large plantings should be made.

Farmers and Conservationists will be watching this grass for some time to determine its resistance to low temperatures, drought and grazing. If it proves itself many acres of Milam County will be converted from low producing needleglass to this highly palatable, high producing introduced grass from Africa.

Dairymen's Short Course

Leptospirosis, the third most costly cattle disease in the U. S., causing losses of $150,000,000 annually, will receive special attention at the 24th annual Dairymen's Short Course, Dec. 4-5, at Texas A&M College. The short course is to feature disease control.

MILAM COUNTY'S FARM SCENE

County Agent Reports

Moore Suggests Use For Frozen Sorghum

By J. D. Moore
County Agent

Due to overflows and other weather conditions, late planting of Hegari for feed is a common practice in Milam County.

Due to the late planting, maturity is delayed and in a number of cases frost or freezing weather occurs before the crop is harvested for hay or silage. Farmers and stockmen have questions concerning the use of Hegari for feed following a freeze.

Ben Spears, Agronomist, has this to say concerning Hegari following a freeze - Mere freezing in and of itself is no direct cause of hydrocyanic acid increase in sorghum. In fact there is a general reduction of hydrocyanic acid after the plants have thawed out and become wilted. It seems that freezing results in rapid and complete liberation of hydrocyanic acid when the plants thaw. Some workers state that cases of sorghum poisoning after a heavy frost can be explained by the animals having access to the sorghum immediately after freezing and while it is still in a frozen condition. If cattle are grazing a field of sorghum, they should be kept out for about two weeks following a freeze. The sorghum is suitable for making silage so far as we know. Of course, sorghum becomes dry after being killed by a freeze and the low moisture content would not be ideal for silage making.

COTTON STALK DEADLINE

Cotton producers are reminded of the compulsory cotton stalk destruction date of midnight Nov. 30, for Milam County. This program is aimed at the control of pink boll worms, however, it also contributes to the control of boll weevils. Milam producers have been very cooperative in carrying out this program.

Tenants and landlords both share in the responsibility of getting the stalks destroyed.

TRACTOR SCHOOL

Farmers who do their own maintenance work on farm machinery and 4-H club adult leaders will be interested in the District Tractor Maintenance School set for Dec. 10-11 at the Agriculture Building in Temple. Any farmer or 4-H club interested in attending this two day school is asked to please contact the county agents office.

Dec. 15 Referendum

Eligible Cotton Voters Defined

College Station, Nov. 26—Farmers "eligible vote" in the upcoming referendum on 1959-crop cotton marketing quotas has been defined by Searcy M. Ferguson, Chairman, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

"The general rule is that anyone who is engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1958 is eligible to vote in the December 15 referendum," the Chairman explained. "This, of course, would include all persons - whether owner, operator, tenant, or sharecropper - who had an interest in the 1958 upland cotton crop.

"However, under provisions of law now in effect, the term 'eligible voters' also includes some other persons whose right to vote on cotton quotas may not be so well understood," Ferguson declared.

"For instance, any grower who had a 1958 cotton allotment for his farm but who produced no cotton this year is also eligible to cast a ballot on 1959-crop quotas.

"Likewise, a farmer who placed his 1958 cotton allotment in the Soil Bank is eligible to vote in the December 15 referendum.

Reminders For Storing Cooked, Uncooked Turkey

Allice G. Hughes

Home Demonstration Agent

Refrigerators will soon be bulging with extra supplies of turkey and all the trimmings for Thanksgiving dinner. Extension foods and nutrition specialist pass along a reminder that sanitary handling and proper storage are of utmost importance to the safety, appetite appeal and flavor of meat.

Uncooked turkey should be wrapped loosely in aluminum foil or waxed paper and stored in the refrigerator at 36 to 38 degrees. Whole birds may be kept this way for three days; cut-up turkey for two days.

Whole cooked birds without stuffing, such as barbecued turkeys, should be refrigerated at 36 to 38 degrees. Wrapped loosely in foil or waxed paper and stored in the kept up to three days.

Proper care of left-over stuffed roast turkey is especially important. Specialists suggest removing all stuffing from the bird. Wrap meat and stuffing separately in waxed paper and store at 36 to 38 degrees. Use gravy and stuffing within one or two days and heat thoroughly before serving.

Questions are often asked on freezing uncooked stuffed birds. This is definitely not recommended by specialists.

Egg Values

A subject of increasing importance and interest, egg value, is the theme of a new bulletin, B-909, released by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service entitled "Know Egg Values." The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station also has released a bulletin, B-913, entitled "Performance of Peach Varieties in East Texas." It comments on peach varieties and gives recommended varieties for East Texas. Both are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Mrs. John D. Charles of Rockdale was guest speaker at the Sharp FHA chapter monthly meeting Thursday.

She spoke on the schools, customs and social life in Germany, stating there were few modern conveniences in the German home. She added in an interesting note that the gram instead of the cup is used in measuring food in recipes.

Mrs. Charles' speech was in keeping with one of the goals of the FHA chapter, "International Good Will."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles were married in Germany where Mr. Charles was with the armed forces. They have lived in Rockdale for five years and Mrs. Charles is a naturalized citizen of the United States.

Tom Murray's Column

THOSE ALASKAN perpetrators have been revealed!

Admittedly Uncle Samuel's 49th state is larger, higher, colder and closer to Russia than Texas. While the eastern writers have made merry at Texans' expense since the advent of Eskimos, they have kept silent on one point.

Alaska has nothing to compare with the classic autumn rugby battle waged each Thanksgiving Day by Texas' most bitter collegiate rivals — the Texas Aggies and the University of Texas.

Of such national magnitude it is being televised coast-to-coast a second time in four years, the storied contest reaches a significant milestone with the two teams about as evenly matched as tiger eyes.

Not a touchdown's difference separates Jim Myers' fast-finishing Aggies and Darrell Royal's Longhorns as they engage in the 63th meeting of this often riotous series. You would think a school trailing 42-17 in any pigskin series would be rather subdued. That is if you knew little about the spirit of the redoubtable Aggies.

The Aggies disdain for the state's largest school, was typified when in the midst of an internal problem, involving the possible intervention of female students at the all-male college, a prominent alumnus told the Associated Press: "We won't mind letting girls into A&M, if they will start admitting men to the University of Texas." Replies of UT's male specie were censored.

The Aggies return to Memorial Stadium a first time since breaking a 33-year old hex the Steers held over them in the 1956 brawl. The Cadets will never forget that game and it is a cinch they will keep the Longhorns reminded.

With Chunkin' Charlie Milstead on the Ag launching pad, throwing at Texas' apparently porous pass defense, the Farmer Faithful are certain the Maroon and White will make it two in a row in Memorial.

Texas, with nothing left but pride, should outsock the Aggies, 28-20, if they produce another "Oklahoma" effort. If not those Eskimos will surely be invaded by hilarious Aggies.

GORDON LEBOUF's switch to blocking back, by necessity, may have been the most significant thing Jim Myers has done in his first year as Aggie bossman. The Port Neches lad, who will be back another year, did a nawsome job against Rice... Jasper Flankin. University of Houston and coach, is surely taking a good look at a couple of Coach Maurice Hobbs' Silsbee Tigers. Jasper is a Silsbee native... Charlie Jungmichael, one of UT's great ex-linemen, out of Orange, is Southland Life Insurance Company's district manager at Albuquerque... Liberty fans will attend the Baylor-Rice game at Waco Saturday to watch Bill Pavliska in his last Bear effort of 1958. Sam Boyd is happy the flying Liberty youngster will return the La Marque Tigers, once an awesome date on any school's football schedule? "One thing for sure," says a veteran game official who has worked many of Orville Ehtridge's games, "they have not had the Jack Throckmorton's and Bobby Graham's and H. G. Anderson's they used to come up with." It is known several schools are interested in Lloyd Kelley, the astute Barbers Hill men.

tor whose teams have not lost a district game in five years... Wade Callam, one of Baytown's gifts to football officiating, asked a question: "Have you seen this Pasadena end, Carl Choate?" Callam, a veteran of the whistle-tooting brigade, added with finality: "That kid is the best high school end I ever saw!" He also put the finger on Pasadena Quarterback Randall Kerbow and Halfback Larry Broussard as solid collegiate prospects.

Central Texas fans, who watched Paul Smith's teams at Cameron and La Vega, may wonder what happened to his favored Galena Park Yellow Jackets who fell to second in District 24-A behind Bob Barfield's Pasadena Eagles. A serious knee injury to all-state halfback candidate Jerry Cook did not help and the full-season loss of starting Quarterback Bobby Go-burth with a broken bone may have the clincher.
